Paris, Nov. 4.—In some parts of France the countryside is one vast graveyard. Around a farm near Champ Fleury the graves are so thick that it is impossible to walk without stepping on them. ENEMY'S BOATS ALL ABOUT THEIR FEARLESS SUB-MARINE

Dover, England, Nov. 4.—It is ascertained that the British cruiser Hermes, which was sunk by a German submarine yesterday, was attacked twelve miles east by south-east of Goodwin Sands, in the Straits of Dover, at 8:15 o'clock in the forenoon. A number of torpedo boat destroyers and other vessels immediately rushed to the assistance of the wounded ship, which floated three-quarters of an hour after being struck, and then keeled over and sank.

Meantime the destroyers rescued the greater number of the crew of 300 men, while other vessels searched the sea in an endeavor to locate the submarine. Two men were killed by the explosion and nine were injured. About forty others are missing. The survivors were landed here.

Dr. Moffatt, surgeon of the British cruiser Hermes, which was sunk by a German submarine yesterday, speaking today at a recruiting meeting, gave a brief story concerning the sinking of his vessel.

"We were all sitting at breakfast," said Dr. Moffatt, "and the first intimation we received that anything was wrong was when the plates on the table flew about the ward room and our breakfasts fell into our laps. There was no panic; every man hurried to his station. I went to the sick bay and superintended the removal of the invalids and then went on deck and saw that all the sick men were put into boats."

The shooting followed. A posse captured Prim and his alleged confederate after a gun battle.

YOUNG LAWYERS
BECOMING FIGHTERS

London, Nov. 4.—The war had its effect on the opening of the law courts. The junior bar is so depleted that the customary little tea parties in chambers to fair friends, which usually mark the beginning of the legal year, were few. But some kept up the old tradition, which included a visit to such historic spots as Lincoln's Inn Old Hall, where, during the great war of 100 years ago Jarndyce v. Jarndyce was dragging its weary length, while patriotic barristers, the "Devil's Own" were drilling in the garden. Just as they are today.

An oil pipe line from the Oklahoma fields, probably Glenn pool near Tulsa, will be built to Beaumont where it will have an outlet to the gulf. Socialists in State Increase in Strength and General Result is Uncertain

In the third district Craig received 388 and Oliver 466.
